Boston August 25th 1795

Dear Sir I received a proof of your confidence in a letter inclosing to me a note of hand signed by Stone Davis upon say of a place in our State called Mount - Ephraim, which is now the town of Richmond I have made every particular enquiry respecting [redacted] him and from two gentleman living there where information I can rely upon I find no such person has ever lived there and I am well convinced your information must have been false - when you will point to me a place where he can be found I will enforce payment - I inclose you a note made by one Hunt who lives in Dorchester was a Lieut. in the army and I am told [redacted] now carries on tanning Bartlett the creditor is of Boston Hatter. I am happy to hear [redacted] pleasing accounts of you could wish for the pleasure of seeing you this way - beg you to make my kind remembrance to Mrs Bourne and consider me as entertaining the warmest esteem for you yours
